“The fundamental premise here is that different systems of knowledge exist in the world. The oppression of one over the other is what we face on a daily basis. This oppression is held in place by societal beliefs, structures, policies and practices.

Ethical space brings knowledge from multiple sources together to create something new and relevant to contemporary situations – ever evolving ever changing – just like the Elders teach us.”
